MANDATUM:

to mandate, order, or commission

Also known as The Washing of the Feet, done by Jesus on the Evening of the Last Supper.

If you would like to be a part of this annual custom on Holy Thursday, please sign up at the buffet counter today or call the parish office to add your name to the list.

History: The root of this practice appears to be found in the hospitality customs of ancient civilizations, especially where sandals were the chief footwear. A host would provide water for guests to wash their feet, provide a servant to wash the feet of the guests or even serve the guests by washing their feet. This is mentioned in several places in the Old Testament of the Bible (e.g. Genesis 18:4; 19:2; 24:32; 43:24; I Samuel 25:41; et al.), as well as other religious and historical documents.

A typical Eastern host might bow, greet, and kiss his guest, then offer water to allow the guest to wash his feet or have servants do it. Though the wearing of sandals might necessitate washing the feet, the water was also offered as a courtesy even when shoes were worn.

I Samuel 25:41 is the first biblical passage where an honored person offers to wash feet as a sign of humility. In John 12, Mary of Bethany anointed Jesus' feet presumably in gratitude for raising her brother Lazarus from the dead, and in preparation for his death and burial. The Bible records washing of the saint's feet being practiced by the primitive church in I Timothy 5:10 perhaps in reference to piety, submission and/or humility.

There are several names for this practice: maundy, foot washing, washing the saints' feet, pedilavium, and mandatum.

The 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal is almost complete. Our goal, set by the Diocese of Madison, was to raise $17,449.00

Today we have raised a total of $12,140.00 in contributions and total pledged.

If you would still like to make a contribution, please do so as soon as possible, and thank you to those who have already supported this appeal.

Diocesan Communion Minister Training

Pat Gorman, Director of the Office of Worship for the Diocese of Madison, will be at Our Lady of the Lake on Saturday, May 11th, from 9:30-11:00 a.m. to provide the required diocesan training for those who assist in distributing Communion at Mass. This one-time workshop is required for everyone who helps with the distribution of the Body or Blood of Christ at weekend or daily Masses.

If you have not had this training, please call the parish office to sign-up at 294-6440, or register online at www.madisondiocese.org/emhc
